Unpacking Feminist Development Policy

ON GLOBAL NORTH & GLOBAL MAJORITY RELATIONS

- Identification of the problem: Power inequalities rooted structural and often interlinked systems of oppression: patriarchy, racism, sexism, ableism and classism.
- Larger challenge: Colonial continuities and racist thinking
- Approach must see issues as cross cutting

What are the issues?

- 1) SRHR; Climate Justice; SGBV; Poverty & Hunger; Humanitarian Emergencies (FDP)
- 2) Peace and social cohesion; Gender-based violence; Health-sexual and reproductive health and rights; Economic and social empowerment, participation and access to good work; Just transition; Food security, agriculture and rural development (BMZ GAP III)

Principles of feminist evaluation

- Evaluation as a political activity
- Knowledge as contingent
- Knowledge serves a specific purpose
- Multiple ways of knowing
- Research methods, institutions and practices are social constructs.
- Gender inequities are a manifestation of social injustice; Intersectional.
- Discrimination based on gender is systematic and structural.
- Action and advocacy as morally and ethically appropriate responses.
